DESCRIPTION:

Makarsankranti was celebrated on 14th January 2021 at Rajgad Dyanpeeth's SCSCOE, Dhangawadi, Bhore, Pune with great enthusiasm. All teaching and, non-teaching ladies staff of SCSCOE were present on this occasion. The statue of Saraswati was garlanded by Prof. J. G. Kale, Prof.A.S.Sondkar.& Mrs.V.B.Dixit.

Prof. J. G. Kale delivered a short speech narrating out the importance of celebrating Makar Sankranti. The festival of Makar Sankranti marks the beginning of the harvest season when new crops are worshipped and shared with delight. The harvest festival heralds a change in season, as from this day, the Sun begins its movement from Dakshinayana (South) to Uttarayana (North) hemisphere. The state celebrates Makar Sankranti by exchanging sweets made of sesame seeds and jaggery or as they call it til-gul laddo. They also wish each other on the day and with this gesture, they strive to keep their friendship alive for the rest of the year. Even if you have some issues, this is the day to forget and forgive by exchanging these sweet treats. There is a saying that goes 'til gul ghya, god-god bola.

Makar Sankranti is also considered a very auspicious time and people also buy new things. They also thank Saraswati, goddess of knowledge on this day and meet and greet their loved ones. The festival is one of the most celebrated one in Maharashtra and rest of the country.

All staff play different games like dumb charades, dance competition,& gifts, flowers are also distributed among each other.

Whole program has conducted by Women Cell (ICC) under the guidance of Principal, Dr. S. B. Patil and presiding officer Prof. J. G. Kale with all departmental ICC Coordinator.
